

I agree with the position taken by the American Radio Relay League in urging the Commission to deny the incursion of non-licensed applications in or near the 420-450 Mhz. band, particularly in the region of 430-450 Mhz, where significant interference to Amateur operations would likely result.